Second Free Concert at New Amphitheatre Announced

(Rushville, IN) The City of Rushville, announced the details of the second of three free concerts that will be held this summer at the new Riverside Park Amphitheatre. The next concert is slated for July 30th, and will headline Brigid's Cross, a Celtic/Irish band from northern Ohio. Wes Miller and the Wes Miller Band will serve as the opening act. The Wes Miller Band specializes in fine bluegrass classics, and original bluegrass works. Wes Miller and the Wes Miller Band will begin at 5:30 pm.

Brigid's Cross was formed in May of 1996, and this dynamic, high-energy trio has since traveled all over the U.S. and Ireland performing their unique blend of Celtic folk/rock music. From the shores of the Great Lakes to the Key West waters, from New York to Las Vegas, and from Las Vegas to the hills of Donegal, Ireland, Brigid's Cross has been pleasing audiences wherever their travels have taken them.

Among many Irish festivals, Brigid's Cross has been a featured performer at the prestigious Milwaukee Irishfest in Milwaukee, an unprecedented five out of their first 8 years together, and will return again this year. The City of Milwaukee, Wisconsin hosts the World's largest Irish Cultural Festival. In 2004, they made their debut on the Irish Festival Cruise. Their performances were so well received that they returned again in 2005, and have been invited again in 2006.

The Brigid's Cross show in Rushville will come directly off the heels of their performance and debut in Ireland at this year's Brian Boru Festival in Killaloe, County Clare.

The Brigid's Cross trio weaves their versatile mix of traditional and contemporary Celtic songs and tunes while blending in some of their original music and parodies as well. Add to the fold a sprinkling of music from many different eras, plus a healthy dose of humor, and you have the ultimate Irish band! You also have a band that appeals to everyone of all ages.

Brigid's Cross has been voted the "Best World/Ethnic Act" in the city of Cleveland, Ohio three times in the Cleveland Free Times Music Awards.

Wes Miller and the Wes Miller Band will open the evening's events with an outstanding bluegrass show. Hailing from Franklin County, Indiana, the Wes Miller Band is a regular at the Ox Barn in Metamora, and has entertained recently at the Festival of Friendship Bluegrass Festival in Friendship, Indiana, the Lillie Mae Bluegrass Festival in Mansfield Ohio, and the Wendy Smith Bluegrass Festival in Nirvana, Michigan

The July 30th concerts are free, and open to the general public.
